PROGRESS OF THE PROJECT

Partners of GENQUEST project have finalized two project results. The results are translated to all partner languages. The results are available on the project website in all partner languages. Partners have organized training course for young people in Graz and are preparing for training course for youth educators in Valencia. After this training each partner will conduct pilot training on local level. This pilot trainings will allow for practical testing of project results by young people and youth educators on local level. Partners will also organize multiplier events in each country in order to promote the project.
